PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. NEW YORK, September 2 .- All of Little Italy, in Harlem, is agog over the suicide yesterday of 16-year-old Elizabeth Troia. The evident determination of the family to frown down gossip by a tomb-like silence on the whole subject has availed little or nothing. Elizabeth was not only the daughter of wealthy parents, and of a family on the top notch of Italian upper tendom, but she was the belle of Little Italy, and the Juliet of a recent romance with a false and sordid Romeo. This is her story, as gathered by the police from neighbors with wagging tongues: Elizabeth's sweetheart was a contractor. answer my letter; it has been a week now The verdict of Little Italy fits him out with a person small and mean as his soul, a single eye, which he kept firmly riveted on the main chance, an ugly face and a wellfilled pocketbook. HAD PLANNED TO ELOPE.

The lovers had planned to elope. The fair Elizabeth's trunk was packed and all was ready, when a letter from her to the contractor fell into her parents' hands and let them into the secret. Knowing their man, perhaps, they sent for the contractor. He came, and after a protracted interview with the old tolks consented to "let the thing slide," and so told his affianced bride. His desertion, more than the balking of her desires, broke her heart. She shut herself in her room and would see none of her people. This morning she went to confession in the new church at One Hundred and Fifteenth street. She told the priest that it was the last time she should see him, and went straight to a neighbor's house, within three doors of her own home, at No. 2204 First avenue, upon coming out of the church. There she swallowed fully an ounce of paris green. Hours later, when the agonizing pain of the poison made her weak and sick, she dragged herself home to die. Her father sent for the family physician, Dr. Felix Amabile, but she would not tell him what the trouble was. Soon the green stuff, rejected by her stomach, betrayed the truth, but it was then too late. The girl fought with determination against the administration of an antidote. She had her way. In the evening, after 12 hours

A DEATHBED INTERVIEW.

There had been a deathbed interview, so it is said, between the girl and her c lover, from which she came out with dry, hot eyes, and a more determined purpose to die than ever. He went away shrugging his shoulders and saving that he was sorry. The dead girl's parents refuse absolutely to speak. They claim that their daughter had no love affair and no reason for suicide. The facts of her sell-murder and the universal verdict of Little Italy contradict them point blank. It is said that the real reason of her parents for opposing the girl's blind infatu-ation was their better knowledge of the contractor's mean caliber and the superiority of their high-spirited, intelligent daughter, that would inevitably make an unhappy marriage.

BITTEN BY A RATTLER,

John McConnell, a Museum Showman, Has His Second Experience in That Line. ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, September 2.- John McConnell was to begin an engagement with a lot of rattlesnakes in a museum. He dumped them into a shoe box, so that they would have room to rattle, and loaded the box, with his cage and showcase, into an express wagon and started this morning. One little snake was dead, and he threw that away. "Go slow, now," he said to the driver, and he raised one board of the box cover to give the snakes air. The box was shallow, and the field. THE ILLINOIS STRIKE OVER.

All of the Operators Except Mr. Scott Agree With Their Employes.

JOLIET, ILL., September 2.-The conference of the coal miners and coal operatives, held here this afternoon, resulted in a settlement of the wage troubles throughout the Northern Illinois coal fields, and an early resumption of work, except in the mines of W. L. Scott. The operators, all of whom were represented, barring Mr. Scott, gave their ultimatum about 5 P. M., after a two hours' executive session. Their terms were a reduction of 73/2 centa a ton; no discount on company store orders; a reduction of 50 per cent in tool sharpening in all the fields except Streator, and the sale of coal to the miners at the cost of putting it on the cars.

The miners considered the proposition until late this evening, and finally resolved to accept it. The workman desired in addition the items of rent free during the strike and no victimizing on going to work. The operators refused to embody these points in the agreement, but stated privately to the miners that the result would be as desired.

Awhile Yet.

The return of King Malieton to Samon is described as having been quite touching. Mataafa greeted his exiled predecessor quite warmly, and the two Kings are living together in close friendship.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 2 .- The correspondent of the Associated Press at Apia, Samoa, gives the following account of the return of King Malieton, King of Samoa, who was deported by the German naval forces nearly two years ago, returned from his exile at Jaluit, Marshall Islands. Sunday, August 11. The German gunboat Wulf arrived in the harbor at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. When the vessel came to anchor Malietoa was seen standing on the deck. The flag of the returning monarch was immediately hoisted on shore, and hearty cheers were given by the American and English residents. Besides Malietoa the three chiefs who were deported with him, Manga, Asi and the King's brother, Molii, were also aboard the Wulf.

THE PARTY LANDS. No canoes were allowed to approach the vessel, and it seemed hardly probable that the party would be landed that day. A little before dark, however, a number of the natives were seen hurrying in the direction of the Matautu, where the German Consulate was situated, and it was ascertained that Malietoa and the chiefs were coming ashore on one of the Wull's boats, with Dr. Stuebel, German Consul General, and Folau, Chief Magistrate of Samoa, who had gone aboard the Wulf an hour before. Quite a crowd of natives and a few white residents had assembled at the spot where the landing was made. When the boat touched the beach Dr. Stuebel sprang out and assisted Malietoa to land once more upon his native shore. The latter was taken at once to Folau's house, where he was followed by a number of people.

AN AFFECTING MEETING. The meeting between Malietoa and his relatives was most affecting. The women fell on their knees and kissed his hands, and the whole party, including the King, were weeping all the time. The greatest expressions of joy were heard, and all present The telegraph line is being constructed from Greytown, and already about three miles has been finished, poles erected and extended sympathy to the monarch who had been carried off by the Germans and landed first at the Cameroons, one of the most unhealthy shores in the world, and taken from there to Hamburg as a steerage passenger, and then exiled on an island in the Marreached Greytown on the 9th, and on that day funeral honors were paid him by the shall group, in company with three of the

No formal acknowledment of this kind was made by the Sophie or the Wulf. There was no American or British man-of-war in what he believed were traces of gold, and the harbor.

The British men-of-war Opal, Lizard and Egeria have been stationed in Pago Pago harbor recently. They assembled there for the purpose of holding a general court-martial. The Orlando, flagship of Admiral Fairfax, was also expected there, but the Admiral sent word to Pago Pago from Tonga that he would be unable to come, as fever had broken out on the Orlando.

ran his eye over the list and marked off Mansfield, McKeesport, Homestead and Braddock boroughs to be heard to-day, with Pittsburg and Allegheny. The general impression was that the Judge was primed for the constables of the boroughs mentioned and the two cities.

The constables heard yesterday, with two exceptions, elicited no remark from Judge White. The exceptions were Constable Seifert, of Sharpsburg borough, and Constable Clishum, of Stowe township. When Seifert was called he remarked that he had no violations to report. Judge White, replied that he had received letters from that neighborhood, and informed the constable, who is porhood, and informed the constable, who is serving his first term, that he was not ex-cused because he did not know of these places, but it was his duty to find them out. Mr. Seifert had marked his return sheet "no violations," but he started to inform District Attorney Porter of a man he had heard was selling. He said he had wit-nesses, and, upon instruction from Mr. Porter, he inserted the name of the delinquent, John Prince, in the return.

Our friends, the enemy, will concentrate all their efforts on the Legislature, and an immense sum of money will be expended in that direction. All they have to fight for is the Senatorship, but I believe that Republican feeling is so high and strong in Ohio this fall that we will win by a nice margin, and will elect a Republican successor to Henry B. Your check is only a piece of paper, so is a bank note, so is a bond. The money behind it gives it value. This advertisement is only paper, but we are behind it and that makes it good for every promise it coatains. Cut out this announcement and it is just as good as, a bear bill for every promise on its face. Get that into your mind and read on. The very best bargains imaginable are still being offered daily at

KAUFMANNS BUILDING and ENLARGING S

There's nothing in that, you say. Others make similar offers. True enough, they do, but WE HAVE THE GOODS. That's the difference between our offer and all others. We've got the collateral behind it. You can come and see it, handle it, examine it. THAT'S WHAT COUNTS! There are goods that look good and are bad; goods that are better than they look, and goods that look like the best and are as good as they look. That's our class. We can't sell what we don't buy and we buy only the test. Next, we offer these as bargains. That means, we give so much value in our goods that they are worth more to you than the money you trade for them. You make money on that kind of a deal. THAT'S WHAT COUNTS!

THIS WEEK, IN PARTICULAR

you should keep your eyes open for matchless bargains. As the new addition to our building advances we are more and more crowded for room. And with this drawback on our hands carloads of new Fall Goods pour their contents in upon us daily, until our store presents one vast conglomeration of contractors, builders, workmen, customers, salesmen and merchandise. Do you see the fix we are in? But there is no emergency so great that Kaufmanns' are not equal to it. They are equal to this one, and the path that leads out of this Babel of men and merchandise is REDUCED PRICES. On this line we shall fight it out, if it takes another month. In the meantime be prepared for rattling good bargains. The of the balance of our Spring and Summer stock are now greater than ever, while our new Fall Goods, as they arrive, are being placed in stock at BARELY cost price. Big houses are sometimes compelled to do business without profit, AND THIS IS OUR SOMETIMES.

Now, then, come in any day this week. It makes no difference whether you patronize our Clothing, Cloak, Shoe, Hat or Furnishing Goods Department, you are bound to get the best bargain of your life.

W Visitors to the Exposition are cordially. invited to call.
